wear for New Prices.

Colonel C. R. Keiley, secretary of the State Council of Derense, has been asked by the government to assist in carrying out the plan for the grouping of shoes in four classes with reference to their price.

This plan has been worked out with the shoe manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers and, while assuring a reasonable profit to the sellers, is expected to considerably reduce the price of footwear to the purchaser, as the government reports declare that an unusually large stock of leather is now being held in this country.

The State Council of Defense is asked to see that the county councils act promptly in this matter.
